

Policy: Deposits are for damages and cancellations. If you cancel your reservation there are no refunds on deposits. So please be sure to let your classmates know before deposits are handed in.

If you fail to make your final payment by the deadline your reservation will be cancelled. If you would like to cancel please be sure to notify Blue Coast Cottages to be released from agreement releasing you from any monies owing.

Once final payment is made there are no refunds. Deposits will be returned if there are no damages once the stay is completed. Return of deposit can take up to 15 business days. The refund will be returned to organizer of the event. It is the organizers responsibility to then return the deposit accordingly to each student. You will receive a damage report if there are any deductions clarifying why a deduction has been made. If you surpass your security deposit amount in damages then legal action may be taken.

Sorry but date changes are not permitted once deposit has been made. Solely if under the discretion and approval of an authorized owner if space permits.
